Synopsis of the Armenian Message

(Revelation 3:14-22)

The seventh letter is addressed to the church of Laodicea. The speaker, Christ is identified as the "Amen, the faithful and true witness, the ruler of God's creation." This means that He fulfills all of God's promises. Christ knows that they are rich and affluent, yet they are lukewarm, which means that they lack enthusiasm, and wholeheartedness. He counsels them to repent and to come and acquire from Him genuine faith and righteousness. Christ is standing at the door and knocking and waiting for those who will open the door of their hearts and invite Him in for true fellowship. Those who do that are promised to sit with Him on His throne and rule with Him. The message for the church of today is that Christ is looking for genuine followers. No nominal, skin-deep religiosity will cut it. Are you wholeheartedly with Him, or are you sitting on the fence? The warning for lukewarm Christians is that "He is going to spit you out of His mouth."
